

World Health Organization
REGIONAL OFFICE FOR
Europe

Stockholms
stad

Safe Mobility and Transport for Urban Populations

18 February 2020

Kapitel 8, Klarabergsviadukten 90, 111 64, Stockholm

St Clara Room

8.00	Registration & Coffee	All participants
8.30	Welcome and introduction  Group photo	Jonathon Passmore Programme Manager, Violence and Injury Prevention, WHO EURO  Daniel Helldén Vice Mayor of Stockholm, Sweden  Frida Trollmyr President, Swedish National Healthy Cities Network
9.00	Panel discussion  Best practice recommendations for road safety in cities	Claudia Adriaola-Steil Director, Health and Road Safety Program WRI Ross Center for Sustainable Cities World Resources Institute  Karen Vancluysen Secretary General, POLIS Cities and Regions for Transport Innovation
9.40	Panel discussion  "Road safety as a key to livable cities"	Matthew Baldwin European Road Safety Coordinator, European Commission  Sonia Diaz de Corcuera Basque Country Transport Director  Geert Van Waeg President, International Federation of Pedestrians
10.20	Coffee Break
10.30	Panel discussion  "Cities as leaders and agents of rapid change for road safety"	Andreas Schönström Deputy Mayor of Malmo, Sweden  Miriam Weber

		Healthy Cities Coordinator, City of Utrecht, Netherlands Paul Fenton Site Manager, Civitas Eccentric in Stockholm, Sweden Juha Jokela Development Manager, Urban Environment Section, City of Turku, Finland
11.10	Panel discussion “There is no sustainable transport without safety”	Lilli Matson Director of Transport Strategy, Transport for London, United Kingdom Rod King Founder, 20’s Plenty For Us, United Kingdom Graziella Jost Projects Director - European Transport Safety Council, Belgium
11.50	World Health Organization European Healthy Cities Network Statement on Safe Mobility and Transport for Urban Populations
12.00	Next steps and close	Jonathon Passmore